

coordinated: synchrony under avoidance, anti-synchrony under ambivalence belief without coordination: each model stays locked to its owner, but the two robots' needs drift apart coordination restored: the partner model follows the partner, and the realised phase relation returns